

Andrew Jackson to Andrew Jackson, Jr., April 12, 1832, from Correspondence of Andrew Jackson. Edited by John Spencer Bassett.

TO ANDREW JACKSON, JR.

Washington, April 12, 1832.

D'r Andrew, Your Cousin Saml. J. Hays has agreed to take the Dog—he will rest at Rockville with you to night. he takes on Sarahs Gator [Guitar]—you must direct him where to leave it—with the Postmaster at Wheeling would be the best deposit, as you will [be likely?] to call there for letters. I have only time to add, that all your attention to Sarah and Emma is due. they are strangers in a strange land, and will require your attention in making them acquainted with all our friends and neighbours near the Hermitage, and on the journey to make them as comfortable as you can. Present me kindly to them with my prayers for your and their happiness. yr father